Boldenone was developed mainly for dystrophy treatment and to increase bone weight and density in osteoporosis. Boldenone is an injectable long-term steroid that exhibits strong anabolic and moderately androgenic properties. Low androgenic properties enable boldenone for women to use. Virilization occurs rarely, as compared to other steroids. Pharmacom Boldenone 500 mg is a popular brand name that was created in order to replicate Dianabol. Dianabol has a proven track record. And is successful at building your muscle. Additionally, Boldenone is a brand name of Boldenone Undecylenate. And is a derivative of testosterone. Undecylenate extends the properties of Equipoise. Healing--everyone has their own unique circumstances and process. We all have our own physical, emotional and mental healing to do and we all have overcome healing throughout our personal journey. High Desert Nectar was the birth child of my healing. I broke multiple bones in my back, my wrists, my clavicle and six ribs (as well as other various wear and tear) in 2015. I had the option to choose pain killers as a part of my recovery but cannabis was the golden avenue I pursued. After realizing how effective plant medicine was with my recovery and healing process, I couldn't resist but move into this entrepreneurial venture myself. That's my story. This is our story..

Basically derived from testosterone, Boldenone undecylenate provides hiked mytrophic activity and equivalent androgenic activity. This steroid doesn't have after affects like estrogen and doesn't even convert them. Pharmacom Labs PHARMA Bold 500 is presented in a 10-milliliter multidose vial and reportedly contains 500 milligrams of boldenone undecylenate per milliliter according to label and/or packaging. Samples of this product were purchased from a European-based internet source between the dates of May 15, 2017 and June 23, 2017.
