Lastly, it's best to keep a backup plan for worst-case scenarios. One thing you could do is prepare a homemade smoothie with all the essential nutrients found in natural ingredients. This way, you will make up for your macro needs on the days when you miss your meals. Skipping meals is never recommended, and it's bound to affect your productivity. However, you can minimize the fallouts by having a meal replacement ready. Making your own recipes with ingredients like protein powder, seeds, nuts, oats, nut butter, almond milk, and fruit is a good choice to ensure your mix's quality. Price for: 100 tabs.
