The second product is CBD herb most people are familiar with CBD by now and it's relaxing/anti inflammatory benefits but if your not basically it's marijuana that has the main Psychoactive component (THC) removed from it while specifically selecting strains that have higher levels of the main anti inflammatory component (CBD). The thing I've found about CBD is it's effective when both smoked or consumed in edibles BUT it's far more cost effective to get the benefits from smoking it. .
