I've only had three sessions with my new therapist and I already feel more affirmed and supported. My new therapist is transgender and uses the same pronouns as me (they/them). There's nothing like talking to someone who just sees you without explanation, or reminders.

"We think that the point is to pass the test or to overcome the problem, but the truth is that things don't really get solved. They come together and fall apart again. It's just like that. The healing comes from letting there be room for all of this to happen: room for grief, for relief, for misery, for joy."
