This version of “beef barley” actually contains canned venison (thanks to my MIL @jkseegs for gifting it), pearl barley, carrots, onion, celery, garlic, thyme, rosemary, and parsley. I also added in frozen garden kale from @oskarapiarygardens (#farmacy ) because I love color on my plate, in my garden, and in my life! 🌱🥕🥦🍅

Many people are afraid to take a cognitive test because they think they will “fail it.” This is unfortunate because they are no more likely to “fail it” than they are the tests of lung and arterial function. It’s like thinking that because you get a little shorter of breath running up a flight of stairs now than when you were younger, you are going to get lung cancer or have a heart attack.
