4. I told him I missed spending extra time with patients in the hospital as a DT and worry about how I can keep that up. He reminded me that 3rd and 4th yr rotations are the perf time for me to ask patients about their story and learn about them. Residencies don't really want to hear about you talk about your accomplishments in a boastful way. They want to hear these patient stories where you grew as a student doctor and truly helped someone.
