Masteron does not convert to estrogen and in some cases it has been used along side nolvadex to combat breast cancer so I think this is where ur mate is losing it, masteron is a short ester so pct would have to start 3 days after last shot. 300mg of clomid that would drive me insane you shouldn't need to go over 100mg per week the highest iv ... Sissy squat is actually safe exercise for quadriceps development and it doesn't put excessive pressure on joints. Also, it gets gluteus and abs working together with the quadriceps.

Post Cycle Therapy is absolutely vital for restoring one's natural testosterone levels following the use of anabolic compounds. When we supplement with steroids, the body comes to rely on them as its primary source of the "male" hormone and, consequently, everything from your vitality to your masteron cycle results can suffer.
