Red flags are our warnings we should never ever ignore. If you are currently dating make sure you are staying alert at all times whilst meeting others, just remember if you meet someone & they've shown you a red flag cut them off you don't owe any explanations to anyone especially someone who is toxic what you allow will continue if you choose to ignore the signs early on, speaking from experience of ignoring plenty of red flags that ended up being the reason it cost me all in the end. Don't make the same mistakes, trust your intuition when you know someone is flatout toxic!
