2. STEEL Rested AF. STEEL Rested AF is another potent sleep aid for bodybuilding that has come second-best on our list. Their formula consists of the basics like GABA, Tyrosine, L-Theanine, and Valerian Root. We didn't like that they have a blend, so each ingredient's total dosages aren't mentioned on it.

Steel Rested-AF Review - Does It Really Work? | Review Critic

Steel Shredded AF is a thermogenic fat burning supplement, specifically designed for men who want to lose weight and get a ripped physique. It is recommended that you consult your healthcare provider before combining any supplements with Steel Shredded AF, or any other dietary supplement, in order to ensure optimal safety and effectiveness.

Rested AF Reaction and Review - YouTube

GABA - People with insomnia problems normally lack GABA in the brain. By adding this neurotransmitter in supplement form, nerve activity is decreased, allowing for better sleep. L-theanine - This substance has a calming effect, reducing the cortisol and epinephrine stress hormones, thereby allowing one to fall asleep.

The Breakdown Ingredients Alright so here's the first negative I have with Rested Af, the ingredient profile is not fully transparent. I prefer full transparency to know exactly what I'm putting into my body. They list the ingredients just only in the total amount of 11 grams not at individual amounts.
