TEST-E 300 2 x 5ml VIAL - MAGNUM PHARMACEUTICALS . Test-E 300, manufactured by known pharmaceutical company Magnum Pharmaceuticals, is one of the most popular steroids in the "iron sport". Test-E 300 is based on Testosterone, a Testosterone which is almost identical to the natural hormone. But Test-E 300 has a longer duration of action.

Now the official stance is that you start hormone therapy as soon as you can. In other words, you go and help women at the moment she begins to transition from the perimenopausal to the menopausal state and work on her symptoms and stop hormone therapy as soon as those symptoms are resolved.

Magnum Pharmaceuticals is a privately held pharmaceutical company. Established in 2012, our objective is to improve the quality of life for men that desire to reach their highest physical potential and enjoy life to the fullest.
