In the last week I stumbled upon @ronny.d.fitness page and he has inspired me to start experimenting with my cooking. His page was full of sinful but high protein-low carb treats and meals and I had to try some out. I love his weight loss journey and his approach to food. For real you guys should check out his page. Happy Sunday babes!!! It's another gorgeous day here and I'm feeling so thankful!! Thankful for the weather (of course!!) but for so many other things as well! We are still in a lockdown here in Ontario and there is a lot of complaining happening, myself included. It's hard being isolated, it's hard not having the same income because you have to be home, it's hard teaching your kids online school...I get it. Some people are much more affected than I am and I understand the sadness and I can't even imagine the pain of loosing a loved one or a job. Aside from major life changing events I'm going to try choosing joy!! Joy that I have a healthy body that allows me to workout each day, joy that I have the support of an amazing team of badass women beside me, joy that my kids are healthy and happy and have a safe place to learn, joy that God has given me an amazingly supportive husband and family, and joy that we live in a country where we have access to clean water and healthy food. I think sometimes we take advantage of the blessing we have everyday and forget that it's not a given for many people. Perspective is everything, and if you wake up everyday thankful for the little things it's hard to complain ?? hope everyone has an amazing Sunday!! What are you grateful for today?
