Quality. 3.0. Hygetropin is a thing that does have HGH in it and it does seem to be working, or at least that what it seemed to me until I tried other HGH brands. I have been on pharma grade HGH brands, I have been on generics and I have also tried Ansomone HGH. Hygetropin is an 191 amino acid sequence somatotropin of medium quality. While it is identical to human body's own growth hormone, the freeze dried powder may contain some bacterial residue. Users are reporting different results from batch to batch.
