Trenbolone - king among steroids. May 8, 2020 Trenbolone has never been officially used in human medicine. Although it was developed only as a veterinary steroid, it has been used since 1970 mainly in bodybuilding and power sports. Its official production lasted less than 20 years. Trenbolone as we know it today is produced only in ...

Tren is a 19 nor steroid, simply meaning the testosterone molecule has been changes in the 19th position and low-and-behold, you have Trenbolone. Sure, we could go into more specific detail but for most bodybuilders the specifics do not matter, only that it works and works well; again, check steroid.com for specifics.

With this being said.. NO they are not essential to use in your every day life. BUT are they helpful to meet certain nutrient goals when you're falling short? ABSOLUTELY!!☐☐
