I opted for the  Oxford  AstraZeneca vaccine, due to my history with allergies, and I have to say, the vaccination process was a breeze. Staff were amazingly helpful and there were plenty of doctors on site. I was shown a full list of ingredients for the vaccine and asked if I was allergic to any of them. Then had to wait for 15 minutes post-vaccination just in case I developed a reaction. Then I could leave!

A person is shown from the chest up, sitting at a white table. They are wearing a white t-shirt and holding a bright blue mug with their right hand. On the table in front of them is a white bowl and a stack of blue books. The background is a blurred kitchen or dining area with shelves containing various items. The overall scene suggests a moment of quiet reflection or a break during a meal.
