It's almost been 3 months on #testosterone already and what an adventure so far. I've been reflecting alot on the fact that I tend to hold grudges and push people away. I'm really trying to let things go and grow as I transition further. I decided to see my mom yesterday (safely of course) after being angry with her for not fully accepting my transition. It's been a difficult time for both of us and I felt it was time to finally patch things up. visit their website
