I'm currently on a cycle of M-Drol and Epi, just started. Originally it was just supposed to be Epi, but I reconsidered and added M-Drol this past Wed @ 10 mg. So today marks day 4 of my cycle with M-Drol, day 6 with Epi. The M-Drol batch I have is #092107. Within a day or two of adding M-Drol I got really lethargic.

Any positive reviews on the new M-drol batch? - AnabolicMinds

Just finished a cycle of M-drol, and with the ultimately minuscule amount of legitimate information on this supplement (most posts involve a young dumb kid asking about it, followed by 400 meat-heads giving him ****), I figured I'd try to add something. I'm 29 y/o, and have been lifting between 10-12 years.

MAXEFFECT PHARMA | mdrol

Satisfaction. Lumbar disk flattening and arthritis, thoracic vertebra injury. Chronic condition causing intense pain periodically over many years. 6 day oak had resolved chronic pain several times with minimal side effects (dizziness, night alertness). I just starting a second dose this time.
