A good cycle for bulking would be the classic NPP and test prop cycle. NPP at 300mg per week for 10 weeks, test prop at 300mg per week for 10 weeks. Notice I did not include an oral to kickstart the cycle as its not necessary with these short acting esters. Don't forget also to use an aromatase inhibitor (AI).

I am doing the same. 500 Test C and 400 NPP. 2nd time w/ test and Nandrolone (1st cycle was 500 test and 300-400 Deca with some NPP mixed in). I would take some kind of anti-prolactin supplement or B-6. With my last cycle, I relied mostly on supps. I only took Caber once or twice. My prolactin levels only went from normal low to normal high.

Apr 21, 2021 #1 Hey all! Was thinking about using NPP for my next "blast" cycle. I've not used this compound before and understand that you need to pin every 2 to 3 days in order to keep blood levels stable; I'm absolutely fine to do that. What I'm unsure about, and have read conflicting information about, is what constitutes an effective dose.

I've had excellent results with NPP at 350 to 425 mg/wk with test at about 350 weekly. Looking back this was one of my most effective cycles at putting on quality lean tissue. Nothing fancy. Test and NPP, good diet, training on point. You are probably familiar with NPP. I know nandrolone is nadrolone and all but I much prefer the shorter ester.
