Beauty is in the eye of the beholder and everyone's opinions of beauty are different and change over time, if someone wants to undergo treatment in order to change their appearance for whatever reason then that's their right to, nobody has the right to tell another what they do with their own body.

ACE-031 is a completely human, recombinant fusion protein that is produced by joining a portion of the human ActRIIB receptor to a portion of a human antibody. This creates a freely circulating, decoy version of ActRIIB which removes proteins, such as GDF-8 (myostatin) and other related molecules...
