Apart from a 6 week sign off from a doctor, which many women dread because then what excuse will they have, there isn't much space to talk about how the transition of motherhood deeply affects everything. Your #body has changed. What worked for you before is likely not going to now. Your #energy, #focus and #priorities have shifted. Not to mention that if you breastfeed, you are also #hormonally releasing chemicals that naturally suppress #libido. (It's natures way of avoiding another #pregnancy too soon after a #baby.)_

The advertisement features a female doctor in a white coat and stethoscope, smiling and gesturing towards a product box. The box is labeled 'Imogen' and features images of a pineapple, an apple, and a tomato. In front of the box are several fresh fruits: a large pineapple, a bunch of grapes, and two red apples. To the right of the doctor, a vertical list of health issues is presented with bullet points.
