I hope everyone enjoyed their weekend! Today's workout is a low impact leg workout, but man was I sweating 😊 I love when I workout and I can tell my body is really feeling it. Sometimes my workouts can feel redundant, but other times I love having that consistency! We can make the same workouts harder by pushing harder and putting in a few more reps. I don't always think it's necessary to find a crazy unique workout. The basics can be really challenging and really rewarding ☺?.
