Iranian Testosterone Enanthate 250 from Aburaihan is a pharmaceutical-grade steroid. So you will get quality product production which is monitored and controlled by government standards. So it should contain not less than 250mg per ml which is hard to find nowadays and only pharmaceutical companies do so.

Peers and even family members used this term to describe me during my formative years. Jiggling, cellulite and big thighs became my biggest embarrassment. 20 years ago, in my environment, having to "jump up and down to fit in your jeans" was something meant to be ashamed of. You were FAT and UNDESIRABLE. Such a strange experience to grow older and see "popular looks" morph as years go by, sometimes to exactly the opposite of what it was and made fun of. All the more reason to NOT GIVE A FUCK about society and LIVE YOUR MF LIFE!!!! .
