O exame de bioimpedância avalia a composição corporal através de uma corrente elétrica que percorre o corpo de modo INOFENSIVO. Essa corrente se move diferentemente através da massa magra e da gordura. A partir da resistência da corrente pelo corpo, do sexo, da idade e da altura, a composição corporal é calculada.

The usage of the Dianabol pills works by contributing towards an enhanced rate of protein synthesis in the muscle tissues. The driving force behind this synthesis of proteins is the retention of nitrogen in the body. When you consume Dianabol, the pills disintegrate to give rise to increased levels of nitrogen in the body. ...
