Osteoporosis is a silent disease in that it is often not diagnosed until there has been a bone fracture and it is then harder to repair the bone damage. It is obviously better to prevent osteoporosis and it's good to start at a young age.? super fast reply

Its a small white pill thats .40mcgs and has KCS imprinted on the pill. Want to know if their is any feed back on these? I also have the Hubei Huangshi clen and it comes in 0,04 mcg tabs...so thats not 0,40 mcg...? Here are some of the symptoms of diabetes and why they may occur. Type 1 diabetes is also known as Insulin Dependent diabetes , this is because it occurs due to the body not producing insulin at all. Type 2 diabetes is non insulin dependent diabetes, although insulin is still produced the body may not be able to use it due to resistance. 40 mcg x 100 capsules Each capsule contains: 40mcg Clenbuterol Hydrochloride.
