Winstrol Tablets, which are also available in the market as Winny, are highly popular among steroid consumers in the realm of bodybuilding for years. It is the commercial terminology of the biochemical compound Stanozolol that is a dihydrotestosterone derivative.

- People who exercise a lot get knee injuries from overdoing it.
  - People who only exercise occasionally get knee injuries from being unprepared for the exertion.
  - People who don't exercise get knee injuries from being out of shape.
- Maybe knees just suck...
