Testolic is a Thai version of testosterone propionate, manufactured mainly in Thailand although it can be found through a number of underground labs and steroid shops. The injectable form of testosterone with the propionate ester attached is known to be relatively effective, and quite inexpensive. Testolic is a derivative of testosterone - testosterone 17 $\beta$ -(beta) propionate. [...]

Warm rosemary bread for some #doughtherapy today. My body is still flared despite strong steroids to break the #fibromyalgia flare. My fatigue is bad today. But I have lovely warm bread and mental relief. I'm devastated by the loss of #ruthbaderginsburg and how #45 is responding. I can't talk about it yet. #autoimmunedisease #sjogrenssyndrome #fibro #fibroflares #onsteroids #kitchentherapy #rosemarybread #baking #pandemicbaking2020

Well I did my first amp of Testolic just now and I did a labmax on it. I hate labmax! Isn't worth a shit in my opinion. Vial A is supposed to be olive green but was more of an amber color, vial B is supposed to be yellow without uv light and it was yellow without light, with light it's supposed to be blue-green and it was green with hardly maybe a little blue.
