1 review US Jan 4, 2023 Many orders received with extras! I recently placed my 5th or 6th order with Americaroids. They are very reliable as long as you plan accordingly with your orders. You must know that it takes AT LEAST 3 weeks to get your order. 3-6 weeks on average. Every order i've placed has come with extra goodies in the package.

I don't care how you want me to return it, I will return the screen on the whole unit, that's fine, but I am not paying return shipping to ship back an item that was sent defective.

Hi! 👤
We cannot confirm if it was misshandled at the post office or not. All items leaving here are QA checked before leaving. That being said you can submit a claim with the post office since you shipped Priority Mail which has insurance included.
Here is what I will do with this one time exception. I will send you a label to send back the item said defective. Then I will refund the item after confirming minus the shipping.
Then then if you want to place another order you may. The RMA process with us and the manufacturer is customer is responsible for return shipping.
Once I receive the unit back I will test, confirm and then issue a refund.

I just got an email about a refund. I didn't want a refund. I wanted a replacement screen or replacement kit... Not to mention, the refund was only for $27.71. I bought 3 kits, even if we exclude the $10 I paid for shipping that was a total of $78. I'd divided by the 3 kits I ordered, each kit was almost $27. You guys just stole $78 from me... And you didn't even ask if I wanted a refund or replacement.

We have received your return, and I have refunded your purchase of the ODROID-GO. There is no damage/scratches on the screen, the screen protector was unused, and the ODROID-GO is completely functional. As per our return policy, a 25% restocking fee has been applied to your refund, since the ODROID-GO can no longer be offered as a new product, and is not defective. Thank you for your business.
