Happy #tbt over the last few weeks I have been watching so many beautiful Women compete in the NPC Pro bodybuilding shows and are all so inspiring. I also want to wish all my teammates good luck even though I know they don't need it because they put in the work! I absolutely love this sport and could not imagine my life without it. I myself am not at a phase in training where I know when I will be competing next but I will for sure be back up on that stage. ☺☺☺ my coaches @usaphysique and I are building a whole new package from the inside out and that takes time. So for now just a little reminiscing of past shows and the lean muscles.
